Introducing our 2026 Judge

Ms Kylie Board (WA)

Hi! I'm Kylie from Western Australia and I'm honoured to be judging the rabbit section of the 2026 Sydney Royal Easter Show next year and am really looking forward to seeing everyone and their beautiful bunnies.

I'm best known for my work educating on rabbit Calicivirus and helping gather data that contributed toward vaccine approval in Australia, connecting rabbits owners from all backgrounds in Australia to come together for one goal and for gaining worldwide interest in our plight against RHDV2 whilst sharing my own struggle with losing my rabbits from the virus - work I remain incredibly proud of and continue to this day.

My judging experience began at a young age and has been shaped by learning from both visiting international judges and our talented Australian judges along with taking the time to keep and learn about all breeds, book stewarding every chance I got and asking all the weird and wonderful questions I could... which is probably why I love when people ask me those questions today!

Throughout my years in the fancy, I've worked with many breeds some include; New Zealand Whites, Chinchilla, English, Silver Fox (which also popped out Astrex), Standard Rex, Polish, Standard & Mini Satin, Tan, Dwarf Lop, Mini Lop, Mini Satin Lop, Mini Cashmere Lop, Netherland Dwarf and English Angora to name a few.

Today, I maintain a small group of Polish, Standard Satin, Tan, Mini Cashmere, my recreated English, and more recently Mini Satins. My focus is preserving rare breeds in small, sustainable lines and giving all my older rabbits a peaceful, bonded retirement for the rest of their lives, I also adopt special needs rabbits knowing I can offer them the best life possible and give them access to the best vet care, comfy homes and spend their last years knowing I'll do anything for them (you don't even want to know how much I've spent on vet bills).

My favourite breed are the English which I've spent years recreating on a very small and slow scale - I just absolutely adore them and will talk about them any chance I get! I also love my Polish, Tans and an extinct breed in Australia - the Argente in champagne, crème and brun.

Rabbit health, ethics, and education are at the heart of everything I do, and I look forward to meeting exhibitors and of course my absolute favourite section - the pet section and supporting the community at the Sydney Royal Show!

See you in 2026!

Kylie

HISTORY OF THE SYDNEY ROYAL RABBIT SHOW

Rabbit Fanciers Society of New South Wales Inc Sydney Royal Rabbit Show

The Rabbit Fanciers Society of NSW Inc in conjunction with the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW Inc are both delighted to invite exhibitors Australia wide to attend the 2026 Sydney Royal Rabbit Show held on Wednesday the 8th of April 2026 at the Sydney Royal Easter Show in the pet pavilion, Sydney Showground, Sydney Olympic Park, NSW 2127.

In 1858 rabbits were judged in the poultry competition up until 1882 when the farmers of NSW decided rabbits were becoming a bit of pest, so they stopped the competition, but in 1997 rabbits came back to the show and have been leaping into the hearts of Showgoers ever since. With many issues damaging the rabbit fancy over many years, numbers dwindled from over 200 exhibits over a two-day show back in 2012, down to just 50 rabbits in a single day show in 2017.

In 2018 the Rabbit Fanciers Society of NSW took on the challenge to make the Sydney Royal Rabbit show the centerpiece of the NSW rabbit fancy and to bring it back to the premier event of the fancy again. With success in their first year, RFS managed to bring numbers back up to 166 exhibits in 2018 with judge Mr John Porritt from Victoria. Again, more success followed in 2019 with interstate exhibitors attending making up 209 entries for judge Sarah Van Steenis from Tasmania and 65 Young Stock entries for Sarah's Mother, Debbie Pulford.

In 2020 we seen the Covid pandemic hit drastically making many changes in the world including the first cancellation of the Sydney Royal Show since the Spanish flu pandemic back in 1919. The show was cancelled a month before the show was meant to start with UK judge Mr Phil Batey and 20 exhibitors entered with over 250 exhibits as well as the whole agricultural community was affected.

In 2021 we tried to bounce back with many new limitations, including interstate travel still not an option, having 144 entries for judge Mr Paul Young from NSW.

2022 brought more hope of bringing the show back to its premier level, having 213 entries for a return of judge Mr John Porritt but some scratchings mainly due to RVHD without the best vaccine available in the country.

In 2023 with Filavac vaccine in the country, it gave the future of the rabbit fancy some hope. Mr Ryan Page came from Western Australia to judge with 167 entries.

2024 was a huge success with UK judge Mr Phil Batey that we missed out on seeing back in 2020 when the show was cancelled. Phil brought a wealth of knowledge with him to share with exhibitors and many exhibitors travelled great distances to get the chance to show under Phil. There was 344 rabbits entered with a total of 264 in attendance making it the greatest rabbit show held at the Sydney Royal.

In 2025 devastation hit the fancy again with the loss of our President and appointed judge for 2025 to be Mr Rowland McDonnell, with great honour Mrs Sarah Falkner filled in and brought an entry of 173 entries. RFS introduced a perpetual trophy named the Rowland McDonnell Memorial Judges Choice Award.

We hope that all members of the rabbit fancy Australia wide will consider attending the Sydney Royal Rabbit show in 2026 bringing quantity and quality to the showpiece show of NSW making it once again the premier event for the state.
